

Third Annual Reagan Dinner

featuring Dr. Terry Paulson

6 pm February 21, 2009
Senior Center, Sonora, CA

Dr. Terry Paulson is a PhD psychologist, author, columnist and honored professional speaker. He was selected to the National Speakers Association's prestigious CPAE Speaker Hall of Fame along with Norman Vincent Peale, Ronald Reagan and Colin Powell.

For over 30 years, Dr. Paulson has helped organizations, leaders, and teams make change work. His positive approaches and practical messages have made him in demand as a speaker all over the world for Fortune 500 companies, mid-size companies, hospitals, government agencies and associations.

Dr. Paulson is a long-time Republican who has spoken to numerous Republican groups. His political commentary has appeared in USA Today, the LA Times and the Wall Street Journal. He publishes in Townhall.com and the Ventura County Star. See his PaulsonOnPolitics Blog at www.paulsononpolitics.com.

Dr. Paulson is the author of The Dinner: The Political Conversation your Mother Told You Never to Have. The book follows two couples from different parties and backgrounds as they explore a political conversation. There is no name calling, just two couples trying to address issues impacting their voting decision. You won't want to miss this thoughtful and entertaining presentation.

"I have heard him twice before. There is no one like him. He is wonderful."
